

Coastal Dining, Cosmopolitan Flair!

We proudly present our 2008 Dining Guide to the Beautiful Golden Isles of Georgia...

Spanky's

For a great time in a casual atmosphere, join all your friends at Spanky's. Spanky's Marshside provides dramatic views of the Marshes of Glynn while the Mallside location is directly across the street from Glynn Place Colonial Mall. See their ad on page 32.

Bennie's Red Barn

Bennie's is "the real" Saint Simons and has been for more than five decades! A cozy ambience that says "relax and enjoy" with your friends and family. See their ad on page 36.

The King and Prince

Locals and visitors in the know are certain to head to the King and Prince Beach & Golf Resort for the famous Sunday brunch! You simply can't beat the ocean view in the elegant main dining room. See the ad on page 33.

Loco's Deli & Pub

There are times when nothing else will do but a cold beer, wings, deli sandwiches and watching a big screen sporting event! Welcome to Loco's Pub & Grill in the heart of Saint Simons at the Shops of Demere. See their ad on page 33.

Longhorn Steakhouse is one of Glynn County's newest dining attractions and many happy customers are returning, bringing all their friends and family. For great steaks and more, it's Longhorn Steakhouse! See their ad on page 35.

Longhorn Steakhouse

Cargo Portside Grill

Why did the hungry islander cross the causeway? Most likely to head to Cargo Portside Grill in historic Downtown Brunswick. Come visit Kate Buchanan and all the gang for award-winning cuisine and a bustling bistro atmosphere! See their ad on page 31.

Joe's Japanese Steakhouse

Where there's fire, there's flavor at Joe's Japanese Steakhouse next door to Spanky's. You're just a short stroll away from Glynn Place Colonial Mall in Brunswick. See ad on page 32.

Georgia Sea Grill

Tucked away in the Village area of Saint Simons is a local favorite, the Georgia Sea Grill. As the name implies, fresh seafood is a house specialty and the wait staff is outstanding! They also can cater your special event in their elegant private event room. See their ad on page 31.

Ask the locals and they'll tell you. Chef/Owner Tom Delaney is an extraordinary talent and one of the most respected Chefs on Saint Simons Island. See their ad on page 36.

Jekyll Island. Where the most excellent food matches the view. And the "Rah" Bar on the dock is a wonderful place to sample fresh Georgia shrimp. Give Dangerous Dan's famous hot sauce a shot! See their ad on page 34

Delaney's Bestro

Dave Snyder sure knows how to do things right—Two beautifully appointed restaurants side-by-side with valet parking to boot! Halyards has earned an enviable regional reputation for superb coastal cuisine in elegant, comfortable surroundings.

Halyards & Tramici

At Tramici you will enjoy a versatile selection with an Italian flair. Both fine restaurants keep loyal customers coming back for more. See their ads on page 30.

Pasta shells aren't the only things we stuff.

Come to Tramici and come hungry.

The place is filled with fun and friends. And the plates march from the kitchen brimming with authentic Italian cuisine by chefs passionate about what they do. It begins with an antipasti (like calamari or gnocchi), followed by wondrous salads (a Caesar, perhaps). Then a chef favorite from choices like salmon, veal, chops, filet and chicken. And what is life without pasta or a perfect pizza? And waiting patiently for you are tempting Italian sweets. Hungry?

HALYARDS
RULE NUMBER 4:

Sometimes,
the best table
in the house
isn't a table at all.

Don't get us wrong. Every table at Halyards is quite special.

But have you enjoyed dining at our bar? So many guests tell us it's their favorite spot. The energy is up, the courtyard views are wonderful and the team of Chris and Bo—part mixologists, part masters of ceremony—are at your elbow for every need. Drop in, take a tall chair and see how we've raised the bar.
